Petals of Blood Characters - eNotes.com

The allegorical nature of Petals of Blood is another factor that can be seen as Ngugi's effort to recreate revolutionary consciousness. As an allegory, Petals of Blood is aimed at recreating a representation of a neo-colonial Kenyan state through characters, places and events that mirror the reality of the actual post-independence Kenyan state. The class differences are created through the peasant class in the form of the Ilmorog farmers and herders such as Muturi, Nyakinyua, Njuguna and ...
